This approval exempts the above named premises from the provisions of the Food Hygiene Regulations 1974
This programme meets the requirements of section 8F of the Food Act 1981 and is subject to the conditions below

Audit

Audit by an approved auditor shall be carried out not less than annually.

A request for an audit or partial audit, by a designated officer of the Director-General, may be made from time to time where there is reason to believe any uncontrolled hazard as defined in Codex Alimentarius exists so as to cause a potential risk to public health. Such audits shall be conducted and reported in the time specified by the designated officer.

The owner of the exemption shall require and authorise the auditor to supply a report to the New Zealand Food Safety Authority within seven working days of the completion of each audit specifying any non compliance, together with agreed remedial actions and timeframe for completion.

The owner of the exemption shall require and authorise the auditor to supply an immediate report to New Zealand Food Safety Authority where in the opinion of the auditor an uncontrolled hazard of immediate public health risk exists.

Scope of the Food Safety Programme

The range of foods or processes described in the food safety programme shall not be changed without submitting an amended programme in accordance with the requirements of the Act. Insignificant changes, that is those which do not affect the critical controls or procedures, are not included in this requirement. When any person named as having a particular function in the food safety programme is permanently replaced, New Zealand Food Safety Authority shall be notified.

Compliance with the Food Safety Programme

Subject to any approved amendments mentioned above, the exemption holder shall ensure compliance with all the provisions of the food safety programme as submitted to, and approved by, the New Zealand Food Safety Authority.

Exemption not Transferable

This exemption applies only to the premises named above. When ownership of the business changes hands the owner shall surrender the exemption.
